THIRD YEAR REMEMBRANCE

In Loving Memory Of

MARK R. RINFRET
2011 - November 12 - 2014

Remembering You
Your time on earth seemed all too brief.
Because we wanted you in our life forever.
And although we really miss you,
In our hearts, we know that you are at peace.
Still, countless times throughout the day
We find ourselves remembering you,
Although we cannot see or hear you,
We know that you are with us.
We feel you in the warmth of the summer sun.
We see you in the brilliance of autumn leaves.
You'll be beside us in the peacefulness of a gentle snowfall
And rejoice with us at the emergence of the first flowers of spring.
We are thankful for the times we shared
And the priceless memories too;
For those memories are a comfort now when we lovingly Remember You.
Your Wife, Penny
and Children, Robyn, Kim,
Renee and Matthew

Obituaries

Patrick C. Murphy

NEWPORT – Patrick Chancellor Murphy, 29, of Newport, RI, passed away on Saturday, November 8, 2014 in Delray Beach, Florida. Patrick was born in Newport, RI on September 6th, 1985. Patrick was the son of Tina Murphy-Reynolds and the late Thomas "Chic" Murphy.

Patrick graduated from Rogers High School in 2004, where he played tennis and was known for his charming sense of humor and candor. Patrick loved to make people laugh and could turn anyone's day around with his fabulous personality.

Patrick played 5th Ward Little League and was proud to be a "5WA" 5th Ward All-star. He played Babe Ruth League baseball and Pop Warner football where he was known as Murph.

Pat was a proud Fifth Warder. Patrick had such a love for the ocean. You could often find him at Gooseberry Beach, Green Bridge, First and Second Beach, Cliff Walk, King's Park or Rejects Beach, where he was a self-described professional body-surfer.

Patrick was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and was very proud of his Irish ancestry. He took several trips to Ireland with his father and brother.

Patrick leaves behind his mother Tina Murphy-Reynolds and James McLoughlin of Jamestown, brother Justin Murphy, his grandfather Elmer Reynolds, his late grandmother Marion Reynolds, all from Newport, his late grandparents Joseph and Eileen Murphy, late uncle Stephen Murphy from Middletown, his many uncles; William Reynolds his wife Beverly of Middletown, late uncle John his wife Lauren Reynolds of Bristol, Elmer Reynolds Jr. his wife Lynn Reynolds of Middletown, late uncle Mark Reynolds of Boston, MA, and his uncle Douglas Reynolds of Florida. He also leaves behind many cousins of the Reynolds', Rosa's and O'Flaherty's, and so very many friends.

He will be truly missed. He will be forever known for his ability, much like his late father, to light up a room with his humor and vivid personality.

Visiting hours will be held from 4-7 p.m. on Friday, November 14, 2014 at O'Neill-Hayes Funeral Home, 465 Spring Street, Newport.

A Mass of Christian burial will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, November 15, 2014, at St. Augustin's Church, Carroll Avenue, Newport. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Potter League for Animals, P.O. Box 412, Newport, RI 02840 to help honor Patrick's love and passion for all animals.

POLICE & FIRE

Domestic violence charged

Alan D. Sampson Jr., 28, of East Greenwich was arrested Monday about 9:30 a.m. on charges of domestic assault, domestic vandalism and interfering with an emergency phone call.

Ebony R. Igle, 26, of 195 Admiral Kalbfus Road, Apt. 11F, was arrested on a District Court warrant charging her with failing to show up for a hearing on her ability to pay fines.

Igle reported that Sampson grabbed her by the throat. She broke free and told him she was calling police, Igle said, but Sampson grabbed her phone and threw it on the floor, breaking the screen.

He went outside and began taking the license plates off her car, she said. Sampson threw her to the ground and dragged her away from the car when she tried to stop him, Igle said.

Sampson left Igle's apartment before they arrived, police said. They arrested Igle on the warrant and searched for Sampson, police said. They found him in the parking lot of the Bayside

Village apartment complex on Third Street and arrested him.

Nabbed on warrant

Khaleel S. Mills, 20, of 7 Dr. Marcus F. Wheatland Boulevard, Apt. A, was arrested Monday about 3:40 p.m. on Broadway on a District Court warrant charging him with failing to appear for an ability-to-pay hearing.

Disorderly conduct alleged

Angela S. St. Laurent, 72, of 417 Forest Ave., Apt. 104, was cited Monday about 4:30 p.m. on a disorderly conduct charge.

Witnesses reported she yelled at a woman at Marshalls in the R.K. Plaza on East Main Road after the woman asked St. Laurent to move her shopping cart so she could get by. St. Laurent then tossed a sweater at the woman, witnesses told.

St. Laurent was issued a summons to appear in District Court on Nov. 21.

Ceremony dedicates park in Woonsocket

WOONSOCKET—Hundreds of people attended the dedication of a new park in Woonsocket to honor veterans.

WLNE-TV reports the new United Veteran's Council of Woonsocket Armed Forces Park was dedicated Tuesday.

The idea for the park came from twin siblings Christopher and Jennifer Lepine, age 17, both students at Mount Saint Charles Academy. The two were inspired by their grandfather's service to his country.

The park, with benches, flags and a monument, was built through the work of volunteers and donations.

State, local and federal officials were among those who attended.

Man severely injured in ATV crash

HOPKINTON — A Hopkinton man was severely injured in a crash of his all-terrain vehicle.

The Westerly Sun reports that police said the unidentified 48-year-old man was hurt Monday night when his ATV flipped.

Hopkinton Police Chief Dave Palmer says he appeared to be alone and was not wearing a helmet when the crash happened.

He was found unconscious and was taken by helicopter to Rhode Island Hospital, where he was listed in critical condition Tuesday.

Palmer said there were no witnesses to the crash.

Cause of Westerly fire is undetermined

WESTERLY — A vacant Westerly house damaged by floods four years ago was finished off by a fire.

Westerly and state fire officials do not believe arson was the cause of the blaze that destroyed the vacant house on Sunday and spread to an adjacent commercial property. Officials have not determined a cause.

The Westerly Sun reports that the fire started in the house and spread to the commercial building. Overhead utility lines were damaged, causing power outages.

The intensity of the blaze damaged nearby buildings.

The town owns the property, which was damaged when the Pawcatuck River overflowed in 2010.

The house will likely be torn down as part of a project already being planned for Westerly's efforts to revitalize the area.

Cranston Police Department probed

CRANSTON — The Cranston Police Department is being examined for national accreditation with a parking ticket scandal and two gender discrimination lawsuits looming in the background.

According to reports, two examiners from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies arrived at police headquarters Monday for an assessment.

The department has been accredited for three years and a routine reaccreditation review has begun. The commission looks at policy and procedures, administration, operations and support services.

Police Chief Michael J. Winquist says the examiners are aware of challenges such as the scandal over allegations that tickets were issued in the wards of two Democratic City Council members who voted against a proposed police labor contract.

Residents and others may speak about the accreditation standards at a 5 p.m. meeting Tuesday
